

Guest Editorial On Civil Defence Day

By William J. Bagnall

REEVE OF THE MUNICIPAL DISTRICT OF MOUNTAIN VIEW

National Civil Defence Day is to be observed this year in Canada on Friday, October 4th.

As Reeve of the Municipal District of Mountain View No. 49, I strongly urge and invite all residents of the district to visit local Civil Defence Headquarters located in the Municipal Office building in Didsbury, on Civil Defence Day.

Arrangements have been made for the Civil Defence Headquarters staff to be on duty from 10 o'clock a.m. to 5 o'clock p.m. on that day. They will be only too happy to answer your questions and demonstrate the operational procedure of your Civil Defence Organization.

Civil Defence is an essential part of the Nation's total defence effort. Preparations for Civil Defence, or any disaster, is an immense, complex, thankless and sometimes frustrating task. It can only succeed if governments at all levels, and individual men and women, all across Canada, are prepared to accept their responsibilities of citizenship in a mature awareness of the heavy obligation that has been thrust on this generation to help safeguard the future of human civilization.

Former District Resident Dies In United States

Mr. Ayard O'Brien passed away September 15, at his home in Manchester, Mass.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife Alice, one daughter and three sons, as well as three sisters. Ayard farmed in the Rosebud district with his brother Sidney and will be remembered by many in the district.

Highlights From Other Weeklies

THE HIGH RIVER TIMES observes that Mr. Timman also proposed at Banff that a good idea might be to take tax collections on a monthly basis. Perhaps that is not a bad idea, but a good many prefer to have their tax payment as one big headache once a year instead of one small headache once a month. Most people gear their incomes to meet the tax payment on a yearly basis, and rural people certainly have not the steady monthly income which would make monthly payments easy or acceptable.

THE CAMROSE CANADIAN says: "We carry the torch for the Western farmer whenever we are confronted by the ravings of some economic expert, so called, who would dump our wheat and let the producer rot in poverty."

Wheat has the intrinsic food value. Britain, Germany, France and Italy all establish minimum prices for their own wheat. Why let them buy ours at 25 cents on the dollar or less? Canada's wheat surplus is taking quite a jolt by this year's sub-normal crop. Let us hear no more bellyaching about a product that does not deteriorate to any great extent by holding it in storage.

Joseph did a very fine job in Egypt, so the Bible tells us, and we recall the day when Canada's bins were all but empty.

Work on the black-topping of the four-lane No. 2 highway was threatened with stoppage last week following representation by district farmers to the M.D. of Mountain View Council, W. J. Bagnall, reeve, indicated that only a realistic attitude on the part of the municipality, the contractor and the Alberta government has made it possible for the work to continue.

The action came after farmers of the area involved complained to Counsellor Earl Dodd in regard to the heavy snot from the plant which was settling on their crops.

Mr. Dodd brought the matter to the municipal council and a by-law was passed which would have sought an injunction prohibiting the further contamination of the area. The matter was settled out of court.

It's Your Skin; Let's Save It

To all Canadian people, far and near, On October 4th, please lend an ear. To what the officials have to say, On Our National Civil Defence Day. They are going to tell us what to do, Should an atomic bomb come out of the blue; None of us can foresee the things to come. So we should all know where we are going to run. Everyone's help will be needed in case The enemy should try to destroy our race; The folks in the city will have to move to the farm. To keep out of danger and free from harm. The scientist should find more useful ways To help mankind with atomic rays; Instead of always wanting to destroy, And causing sorrow instead of joy.

If we should ever have a nuclear blast, It could destroy this country pretty fast, And none of us would live to tell What it was like to be in a living hell. So every night when we prepare for bed, We should pause a moment and bow our head; And say a little prayer for everlasting peace. So the things on this earth will never cease.

And another friendly nod from the editor for this very timely and sensible spurge from our faithful contributor, Mr. E. Combes.

Some of the championship games have been completed but there are some still to come. A complete list of winners will appear next week in these columns.

'Flu Epidemic Still Prevalent In Many Areas

Influenza, probably Asian, has caused epidemics in some schools in Calgary and is also the probable cause of a lot of sickness at present in other schools. This disease is highly infectious and there is not much that can be done to prevent its spread, except by keeping sick people at home.

Inoculations are being prepared, but they will be reserved for key groups of people in the first place. In any case, there is some doubt if they will arrive in time to have much effect on any but a small number of people.

This disease is unpleasant but shows very few signs of being serious. It starts suddenly with a feeling of weakness, chills, fever and usually head-ache. The temperature is usually around 100 to 103.

Signs and Symptoms: (1) A feeling of weakness. (2) Chills. (3) Fever; the temperature is usually 100 to 103. (4) Usually headache.

Other Symptoms Are: General aches and pains in the

SPRINGSIDE NOTES

CIVIL DEFENCE NOTE:

In peace time, as in war time, Civil Defence can save lives, reduce property damage. Think it over!

muscles: Sore throat with raspy cough. Abdominal cramps, nausea, sometimes vomiting.

A patient may have some or all of these.

The attack usually lasts two to four days and is followed by a feeling of weakness for up to one week.

Advice On Treatment:

(1) Bed. (2) Light diet with plenty of fluids. (3) Attention to the bowels. (4) Aspirin if the patient has taken aspirin before.

The great majority of patients recover without anything further. However, some complications do arise. You should therefore get in touch with your family doctor in each case that you think may be influenza.

You can prevent the spread of this disease by keeping sick people at home for one week until they feel well again.

The above information was received from D. N. Keys, Medical Officer of Health.

Just For The Record . . .

The hail suppression scheme has about run the course for another year and once more we hear moans and groans as to its effectiveness. Not being a specialist in this line we don't like to speak too loudly one way or the other, but don't you think it's worth another try? According to statistics this was the worst hail year in many, many moons, yet a fair crop is being harvested in most areas. The issue will have to come to another vote this fall and it will be interesting to read the final count on that one.

Just For The Record . . .

Civil Defence officials are really turning on the heat about now in preparation for Civil Defence Day, scheduled for Friday, October 4th. Elsewhere in this issue is a message from local headquarters of the organization. We suggest you read it carefully and take advantage of the invitation to visit the control centre and see just how operations will be carried out in case of war or any other disaster.

Just For The Record . . .

As most of you know, the "world serious" gets underway this week and the fall baseball madness will reach to all corners of the civilized world for the annual classic. To make it more interesting locally, the Lions Club are again sponsoring a mammoth pool on all games. Tickets can be acquired from members of the club. Proceeds will go to the rest room fund.

And A Friendly Nod . . .

TWO LITTLE WORDS — "THANK YOU" —

Two little words not hard to say. Especially if you use them every day. Those two little words are really quite small. Yet some people never bother to use them at all.

When the waitress brings your dinner on a plate. Remember to say "thank you" after you have ate. The waitress, too, might learn to say. "Thank you," for your little tip today.

If your mother-in-law invites you out to tea. Say "thank you" for being so nice to me!

And when mother fixes up your party gown. Just say "thank you" with a smile, not a frown.

If I were a teacher in one of the schools. I would make "thank you" part of the Golden Rule. So, to all you young students, this poem do read. Make "thank you" a part of your daily creed.

When mother cooks a good dinner for us. Say "thank you" Mom. I feel ready to bust! And if you get an invitation out to dine. Remember to say "thank you" for a wonderful time.

When you grow up and set yourself a wife. Say "thank you" for all the little things of life. When your children are big enough to say "go-o-oo!" Teach them those two little words. "thank you."

To the editor and staff of The Didsbury Pioneer. I would like to say "thank you" for printing this so clear. So that everyone might read about two little words. And will say "thank you" loud enough to be heard.

— E. Coombes

LIGHT YOUR WAY WITH BIBLE STUDY

The children were having a lesson in painting, and the teacher was trying to show the greatness of Joshua Reynolds.

"He could change a glad face into a sad face with one stroke of the brush," she explained. Jimmy held up his hand. "So can my mother," he said. Jimmy had misunderstood the teacher.

But the subject of brush and strap has been widely misunderstood by grown-ups, too. For an artist it may be easy to change a glad face into a sad face; perhaps not much harder to change a sad face into a glad face. Mother and Dad could do that with a brush too, but they really have to understand three persons: themselves, God, and their child.

Not long ago a news story came over the wires relating that in one of the Eastern states the father of a juvenile delinquent had to deliver six strokes of the whip to the delinquent. Some people actually think beatings are the cure for delinquency. Beatings can help to establish who is the "boss". However, the brush is for emergencies only.

But the real training must be one of understanding, of guiding, of love, of living together day by day in the will of God.

By following the edict of Christ: "Let the children come to me, do not hinder them: for to such belongs the Kingdom of God."

Parents can do more for their children. When parents and children, both, study the Word at home, when both come to church regularly they have a bond that holds them together and a guide that helps them over many of the rough spots. Will you make this your resolve: I, and the children, God has given me will henceforth be regular in hearing His Word!

Notes From D.A.

By Howard J. Fubner

Shipping fever (Hemorrhagic Septicemia) is a serious cattle disease occurring mainly in the fall and early winter. This disease occurs most often with movement of cattle, but can occur on any farm or ranch. It is serious, causing many fatalities, together with chemically ill animals, also loss of weight, extra feed and veterinarian expenses.

Most livestock men are familiar with the symptoms, many are familiar with treatment, and know in many cases this is not completely satisfactory. Bacterins and anti-serums can be used to good success; in bacterins a period of two weeks after injection is required before a resistance is built up by the animal. In the anti-serum an immediate resistance is built up but this is short-lived, lasting for two to three weeks. Prevention is the best way to reduce this disease; there are a few simple rules which should be followed: Avoid rough handling at round up or loading. This causes over heating and excitement in the animals. Do not expose healthy animals to infected animals in corrals or pens. Provide ample dry bedding.

When cattle are put in new quarters, pens or corrals feed them similar feed and water that they are used to. If shipping, do not overfeed; this also applies to holding, pens, etc. Avoid if possible moving cattle in bad weather, cold rains or wet snows. Use bacterins two weeks prior to corralling or moving, or anti-serums immediately before handling.

Remember that the disease strikes when cattle have a low resistance and this can be brought on by any of the above factors, along with severe weather changes. If you are purchasing cattle, isolate them from your herd for at least 10 days as they may otherwise infect your herd and premises if they are infected with shipping fever.

YOUR DISTRICT
HOME ECONOMIST
WRITES . . .
By HELEN HOWARD

Dear Friends:
The warm glow of autumn colors — russet, scarlet and gold — can be preserved for future decorating use in your home. Cut branches of autumn leaves when their colors are the brightest and place in water and glycerine. The glycerine preserves the colors. The proportions should be 1/3 glycerine to 2/3 water.

Winter table centres and arrangements need not be of expensive hot house flowers. Brighten up your home this winter with unusual dried arrangements of leaves and plants — and now's the time to gather your material. Golden rod, grasses and bullrushes (just to mention a few) make attractive dried arrangements. The leaves of bullrushes dry into unusual twisted and attractive shapes. Dry the material by tying together and hanging top downward in a cool dry place. Material dried in this manner is fragile but does make attractive table decorations for winter festivities.

To keep bullrushes from fluffing, dip the heads in shellac. I hope you managed to get all your tomatoes, corn and flowers in before the frost last week. Maybe if you did, you have some green tomatoes on hand. There are many interesting ways in which you can use them — fried in batter, in green tomato pickle or in pies.

GREEN TOMATO PIE

4 medium tomatoes (approx. 2" in diameter)
1 1/2 Cups Water
1 1/2 Cups Sugar
1 Cup Raisins

Juice of one lemon
Slice tomatoes, cover with water. Bring to a boil and simmer until tomatoes are transparent (about 1 hour). Add raisins and sugar, boil another 5 minutes. Remove from heat and add lemon juice. Pour into uncooked pastry shell, cover with pastry and bake in moderate hot oven (400 degrees F.) until pastry is a golden brown (20 to 25 minutes).

The result is a pie filling similar to raisin but with a slightly tart flavor. Try it!

I also have a good recipe for Green Tomato Minicmeat which I will pass along to you in another column. Save about 3 lbs. of your green tomatoes for it.

Before you go back to the kitchen, homemakers, I'd like to leave this word with you. With the coming of this fall season, also comes the organization of 4-H Clubs. There isn't a better training for your girls, mothers, and I know that many of my districts have eight girls between 12 and 21 years of age who would be interested. You mothers and ladies groups are the ones who must get things started though.

In the clothing project, girls learn not only the proper techni-

FORD — PARSONS

A quiet evening wedding ceremony was held recently in St. Paul's United Church, Grande Prairie when Georgina Har, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Parsons, formerly of Didsbury, and Murray Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ford, all of Grande Prairie, were united in marriage. Rev. G. B. Johnston officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride chose a slipper-length gown of pink taffeta and net. Her chapel veil was held in place by a Juliet cap, encrusted with sequins and opalescent flowers. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations. Her only jewellery was Alaska black diamonds, gift of the groom.

Diane Brown, maid of honor, was gowned in a waist-length gown of powder blue net over taffeta, and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

J. M. Orr of Grande Prairie attended the groom.

A small reception followed at the family home where the bride's mother received in a pink crepe gown, with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The groom's mother chose navy crepe. Her corsage was also of pink carnations.

A three-tiered wedding cake centred the bride's table, flanked by crystals and tapers. Assisting in serving were Miss Sandra Parsons, Miss Dorothy Smuland and Mrs. Donna Ames.

BANGS VACCINATION: The fall drive for Bangs vaccination of all heifer calves between the ages of 4 to 12 months will be getting underway very shortly. On the first of October new rates were introduced covering the cost of vaccination. The provincial government is now paying an increased subsidy to wards the cost of this service and, in effect, the ultimate cost to the cattlemen for the vaccination of his calves will work out as follows: 60 cents per head instead of $1.00 per head as formerly. All additional head will cost 20 cents per head instead of 40 cents.

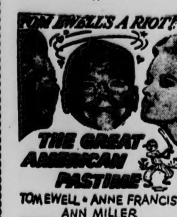

We feel that these new rates are very favorable and will save the cattlemen of this district a lot of money. Our aim this fall is COMPLETE vaccination of ALL heifer calves, whether in feed lots or otherwise, and we trust that every cattlemen will co-operate to this end.

To the residents of the Carstairs and Cremona districts I would like to tell you that there now is a practising veterinarian located at Carstairs. Dr. Stanley Bell is a native of the Carstairs district. He took his training and graduated from the Ontario Veterinary College at Guelph. He spent three years since his graduation working with the Anderson Animal Clinic of Calgary.

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Lydia Suder has returned again the campus after an extended tour of the churches in the province on behalf of the Women's Missionary Church. Miss Lois Salmon of India is her guest during the weekend and is speaking at the local W.M.S. meetings while here.

Last week a fine number of ladies came ready to work at the college. They did a splendid job and are to be commended for their helpfulness. Some came from Calgary, Cremona and Sundre, as well as many more local ladies from Mountain View Church and Didsbury. Thank you one and all for a job well done. There is still cleaning to be done in the chapel, which is being completed now and possibly some who were unable to come last week would like to do so this week. Just phone if you're interested.

Friends in B.C. have sent us a number of boxes of apples again this year. Quite a lot of fruit has been donated in this way, and we appreciate this greatly. Our vegetable bin in the root cellar is being filled for the winter. You may have more vegetables than you need. Don't forget the school.

Mrs. Kagey, dean of women, returned to take up her duties on Tuesday of this week. It is good to see her again and we trust that she will enjoy the apartment that has been arranged for her.

Mr. Richard Carpenter is on his way from Michigan. Word was received that he will cross the line some time Wednesday. He has been taking special courses in music during the summer months and is coming back with enthusiasm and new ideas.

Miss Gladys Eby spent the remainder of her summer vacation with her niece in Red Deer during the past week. Preparations for class work and registration will keep her quite busy during the next week or ten days.

Arthur Eby and his father, Mr. Sam Eby, are busy putting the finishing touches in the chapel. The steam pipes will then be laid to the two apartments as yet unheated. This work has kept our maintenance superintendent very busy during the past several weeks.

College registration will take place on October 8. To those students who live in the community, remember that chapel will be held that day, and you will want to be there.

MONEY NOW AVAILABLE FOR VETERANS' HOUSING

Veterans eligible for assistance under the Veterans' Land Act are today in an enviable position because they are not confronted with the present shortage of mortgage money, if they need assistance for housing purposes.

The Director, Veterans' Land Act, can grant assistance to veterans to build homes on either small acreages out of the heavy taxation areas and where the veterans can supplement their present income on city lots with a long-term CMHC mortgage, where the monthly payments are less than current rentals.

There are many advantages to the veterans building under either scheme. Repayment can be extended over 25 years with low monthly payments. Veterans are given free legal services, they can act as their own contractors and are a considerable amount of money on over-head charges and contribute much of their own labor. Construction schools are arranged to educate veterans in handling their contracts and dealing with suppliers and sub trades. The director advances interest-free money while the houses are under construction and competent construction supervisors are available at all times to direct and assist veterans with plans, specifications and actual construction work.

The veterans are required to find and select their own land. However, financial assistance can be given to veterans to purchase acreage for a small holding, but veterans building in a town or city have to purchase their own lots.

The Veterans' Land Act offers splendid opportunities to veterans of World War II who today are perplexed with a housing problem and are unable to compete in the open market against those in the higher income brackets, or obtain loans under the present tight mortgage money situation. In fact, the Veterans' Land Act is the answer to those veterans on lower incomes, who for years have wanted to improve home conditions for their families.

It is unfortunate so many veterans are not aware of the real assistance that can be given to them under the Act, and in their own interest they should immediately contact the nearest regional supervisor or settlement officer. Veterans' Land Act, who will be pleased to give them full information and

CREMONA NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Cremona Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. W. Franklin on Wednesday, Sept. 25. The ladies discovered that their home at Big Prairie had been destroyed by fire. The log cabin on the old Chapman place was said by some of the older residents to have been a landmark of that community. Another landmark, an old church near the Chapman house, was also destroyed. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe spent the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson and will return to Banff for the winter.

The track meet held in Carstairs last Friday was of interest to school children and parents alike. There were 19 entries from Cremona and they rated fourth in the eight-school competition. Joan Liddell was the star from Cremona, coming home with five red ribbons. Russell Roberts, Gary Taylor, Allan Hettiger and Carol Krebs won ribbons also.

As near as we know Virgil Burkholder was the first farmer nearby to finish threshing for this year. He finished on Saturday, Sept. 28.

The government auditors were out to do their yearly examination of the Credit Union books on Friday, Sept. 27. You can look for verification slips within the next 30 days.

Miss Theresa Klobberdanz is the new assistant in Holbrook's store. The United Church Sunday school now starts at 10:30 a.m. Church on the first and third Sundays is still at 11:45.

Even The Mighty Are Human

The B.C. Motor Vehicles Branch said Monday it has suspended the driving licence of highways minister P. A. Gagliardi for one month.

The minister was fined $10 in Kamloops last month for speeding on a new section of highway. Earlier this year he was fined $25 in Vancouver on a speeding charge.

The minister said Sunday he proposed voluntarily to forfeit his right to drive for one month whatever decision the branch reached.

Westcott News

(From Our Own Correspondent)

(Intended For Last Week) Combining and threshing was resumed here on the weekend and as we are being treated to beautiful fall weather, that is those who have anything to harvest following the hail storms this past season.

Mr. Wilbert Berseth of Nanton was a Saturday night guest with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Goetjen.

Mrs. Leonard Papke and the children spent last Saturday at the home of Herbert Goetjen, where Mr. Papke is employed for the harvesting.

Mr. Donald Folkmann of Brandon left at the weekend for home after spending his holidays at his parental home.

CROP REPORT

A return to warm, sunny weather early last week has enabled farmers to get at their long-delayed harvesting operations, after about a month of cool, damp weather during which little work was possible.

Damage to both swathed and standing grain was becoming extensive. Swaths had been flattened and sprouting and mildew was common. Harvesting grain had suffered more than wheat, but there were reports of bleaching even in standing wheat. Oats were shelled in places where land was too soft to move machinery when the grain was ripe.

The first heavy frost of the season occurred over most of the province on Sept. 17 but at the time of reporting it was too early to assess the damage.

FAST THINKING ! ! !

"A young couple got a minister out to bed at 3 o'clock in the morning to marry them," said a newspaper editor to a young man who had applied for a job as reporter. "How would you head such a story?"

"That's easy," the young man replied: "I'd head it, Parson Ties Knot in His Shirttail!"

particulars.

Any veteran who needs a home today should lose no time in finding out the facts by thorough discussion with a V.L.A. official, or pay a call on any one of the many hundreds of veterans who are now experiencing contentment and security in their new V.L.A. homes.
